ASHLEY FOSTER
FINANCIAL ADVISOR

Ashley graduated from the University of Virginia where she majored in Foreign Affairs and Media Studies. When asked how she made the transition to finance, she notes that her decision was easy, "After working in and observing my mom's financial practice, I witnessed the power of financial planning for families and businesses. I knew it was a rewarding and fulfilling career that I wanted to join."

While in Charlottesville, Ashley worked for St. Jude and served on the philanthropy board for her sorority, Kappa Alpha Theta. Since moving back to Richmond, she has affiliated herself with The Junior League of Richmond, a service organization. Ashley's desire to help others drives her practice to ensure that the needs of business owners and individuals are both addressed and that solutions are presented.

Ashley holds the Series 7 and 66 registrations and is Virginia Life/ Health/ Annuity licensed. Her practice specializes in the area of personal financial planning, risk management, investment management, employee benefits, and business succession strategies and wealth transfer.

In her spare time, Ashley enjoys running, yoga, painting and wine tasting.

Ashley is a Registered Representative and Investment Advisor Representative with Securian Financial Services, Inc.
