

VIRGINIA ASSET MANAGEMENT

The power of independence.

WILL NORDT

FINANCIAL ADVISOR

Born and raised in Charlottesville, Will is a graduate of the University of Virginia where he double majored in Applied Statistics with a concentration in Actuarial Finance, and Economics. While at UVA, Will served as a Young Life leader at Jack Jouett Middle School.

Upon graduation, Will joined Virginia Asset Management as an advisor. Will holds the Series 66, Series 7 registrations and the Virginia Life/Health/Annuity license. Will focuses his practice on helping businesses and individuals by offering advice in the areas of personal financial planning, risk management, investment management, business succession planning, and executive/key employee retention strategies. As an advisor and advocate, it is important to Will to build strong relationships with the people he meets.

Will lives in Richmond with his wife, Grace. They love to explore the local restaurant scene and spend time by the James River. In his spare time, Will enjoys playing golf and soccer, visiting family, and watching his favorite sports teams, UVA Men's Basketball and Manchester United.
